

Exhibit D: Fiscal Achievement Scorecard

Prepared for: Memorandum to the Village Board of Tuxedo Park Record periods: McFadden administrations, 2005–2007 and July 2017–2023

Executive finding

The fiscal record includes an independent credit-rating upgrade, a low fiscal-stress score, and Village-reported budget and tax-levy results. Project delivery, procurement, and later borrowing are addressed in Exhibits C, B, and F, respectively.

Fiscal scorecard

Mayor / administration	Date / period	Measure	Documented result	Benchmark	Meaning
McFadden	2005–2007	First-administration tax restraint	According to Deputy Mayor and Treasurer Christopher Hansen, the Village adopted what he described as its lowest tax increase in the preceding 15 years	Hansen statement, paraphrased by McFadden	Attributed achievement, not an independently recalculated 15-year series
McFadden	FY2022	FY2022 OSC fiscal-stress score	1.7	25.0 first designation threshold	No Designation; 23.3 points below the first threshold
McFadden	July 2021	General-obligation credit rating	AA/Stable in July 2021	Upgrade from AA-	Independent improvement in credit profile
McFadden	FY2022–23	FY2022–23 projected budget result	6.51% under budget	Adopted budget	Village-reported favorable variance
McFadden	FY2023–24	FY2023–24 property-tax levy	1.7621% reduction	Prior-year levy	Tax restraint at the end of the administration
McFadden	FY2023–24	Use of unallocated surplus in FY2023–24 budget	None reported	Village budget statement	Levy reduction was not reported as funded by unallocated surplus
McFadden	FY2024	FY2024 tax-cap position	$3,654,610 levy	$3,920,740 limit	$266,130 below the reported cap
McFadden	FY2024	FY2024 constitutional tax-limit use	$3,654,610 levy	$9,061,694 limit	Approximately 40.3% used

Dedicated Sewer Fund

During Mayor David McFadden's administration, effective June 1, 2022, the Village established a Dedicated Sewer Fund with separate sewer accounting to improve cost accountability. This was an accounting structure, not a construction expenditure.
